Recovery Rocks Newsletter

December 2011

Volume 6

The Recovery Rocks Newsletter is published by the Sudbury Area Sub-Committee. The views expressed are those of the editors and not those of Narcotics Anonymous. E-mail your submissions to hockey_mommy@live.ca

A word from the Editor: Hi family, I'm so pleased with all the feedback I've been getting! Please send me some of your original recovery work so that I can include it in the next issue :) Sincerely yours, Danielle

The Sudbury Area Service Committee is held on the last Saturday of every month at the Salvation Army. There is no clean time requirement, just a heart-beat and a willingness to serve! Come be a part of Narcotics Anonymous!

POEM of the Month

Life on Life's Terms

The earth has gave me life and strength to endure what I need for me, Opening my eyes and my heart I came to believe. Awakening the soul

I gave my life to the will of recovery, I sit, I stand, and I walk with security. As a day goes on dusk to dawn, Coming together I found where I belong. Listening and learning has gave me peace, Excepting my failures and defeats. With humility today there are no insecurities, For when I have truth, thus has serenity. I can have, I cannot have, all the above, Simply by saying there is a god I love Chasing my feelings I can grow indeed, pondered in thought, not sharing my greed. Materials of man I greatly dismissed, Blunder I shared and being so care-less. Today I can stay or be gone with the wind that blows by, To carry my shame would bring me to stay high. I said to my higher power "I AM DONE", Living life on life's terms that shall be my fun! Author; Shane Wolfe

Beginnings are usually scary and endings are usually sad, but it's everything in between that makes it all worth living.

DYSFUNCTIONAL FAMILY CIRCUS
